CHIARA GANETTI

Graduated in Viticulture and Oenology

👤 Profile

My education in oenology and agricultural sciences, combined with a strong passion for the wine sector, has enabled me to develop both technical and managerial skills in wine production and marketing. I have had the opportunity to apply the knowledge acquired during internships, adapting it to different business contexts. My experience in the restaurant industry has also provided me with strong organizational and interpersonal skills, valuable for managing customer relationships and effectively supporting sales and promotional activities.
